Bologna, Auguſt 25.

AN Engliſh Conſul is paſs'd through this Place, in his Way to Naples, where he is to reſide on the Part of the Queen of Great Britain. The Levies for the Pope go on ſucceſsfully in the open Country of this Province; and on Saturday laſt the Communities began to deliver their hundredth Men for the ſame Service. Stores of Hay and Oats are laying up at Faenza for 6000 of the Pope's Horſe which are to Winter there: And about 12000 Foot are to be Quarter'd in Imola, Ravenna, Frolii, Ceſena, and Caſtelli.

Venice, Sept. 1. Letters from Ferrara tell us the Imperialiſts live ſomething diſorderly in that Province; and that on Wedneſday laſt 3 Huſſars ſtop'd the Poſt on the Road between that City and Rome, cut open the Mail, and took away all the Letters directed to Rome. The Count de Boneval Commandant of the Imperialiſts in Comacchio, had ſignified to the adjacent Communities, that they ſhould ſend Deputies to Argenta to receive his Orders on pain of military Execution. In the mean time the Peaſants have taken Arms to defend their Poſſeſſions. The new Fortifications made by Order of the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara at the Bridge of Lago-Scuro and at Cento, are carry'd on with great Diligence; and the Germans are throwing up a Line from Torre Roſſo to Magnavacca. From Lombardy 'tis advis'd, that a great number of Recruits were arriv'd for the Imperial Troops in Italy; that the Marquis de Prie was about to take a Journey to Rome to treat of an Accommodation between that Court and that of Vienna; that 'twas ſaid the Pope had refus'd the Mediation of the Electors of Mentz and Palatine to whom the Emperour had offer'd to refer the Matters in debate; and that however, 'twas not doubted the Differences between them would be made up peaceably. The Earl of Manchester, Ambaſſador Extraordinary of the Queen of Great Britain to this Republick, having Yeſterday receiv'd from our Regency intire Satisfaction on the Subject of his laſt Memorial, will ſhortly be going for England, and will leave Mr. Cole as Secretary from Her Majeſty to take Care of Affairs here relating to the Britiſh Nation. The Officers who Siez'd in a Gondola certain Goods, which ſome Perſons in that Ambaſſador's Livery were endeavouring to run; are to be led over the Place of St. Mark with a Paper on their Breaſt denoting their Offence, and then be ſent to the Galleys: And the Goods are to be deliver'd back into the Gondola.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 11.

From the Elector of Hanover's Camp at Muhlberg, Sept. 4. The 2d of this Month General Count de la Tour was detach'd towards Philipsburg, with the Regiments of Imperial Cuiraſſiers of Merci and Lobkowitz, that of Dragoons of Ottingen, and ſome Infantry of the Forces of the Circles; and Yeſterday we had Advice, that he had paſs'd the Rhine with thoſe Troops. The Count de Venningen Great Maſter of the Chace to the Elector Palatine, having come hither to invite the Elector of Hanover to a Hunting at Hokenheim, his Electoral Highneſs went thither Yeſterday, with a Guard of ſome Regiments of Horſe and Foot.

From the Camp at Muhlberg, Sept. 8. Seventeen Battallions of our Army are poſted on the ſide of the Rhine. General Count de la Tour, who ſome Days ago paſs'd the Rhine at Philipsburg with 3000 Horſe, is advanc'd with them to Landau. 'Tis ſaid that Detachment was made, to prevent the Enemy's ſending 10000 Men to Flanders as they deſign'd. This Morning at 2 a Clock the Enemy's Army decamp'd from Langencandel, to retire behind their Lines on the Lutter. 'Tis reported, that during their Encampment at Langencandel, they loſt above 3000 Men and 2000 Horſes; as well by Deſertion, as by the Excurſions of Parties from the Garriſon of Landau. 'Tis rumour'd, that ſhould the Enemy make a Detachment for Flanders, the greateſt Part of our Cavalry will alſo be ſent thither.

Letters from Landau of the 8th of September, ſay the Cavalry of that Garriſon were march'd out, to endeavour to fall on the Rear-guard of the Enemy in their Retreat from Langencandel to their Lines behind the Lutter, whither they had ſent before their Artillery and Baggage. The Elector of Hanover continues at Hockenheim.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 11.

Hamburg, Sept. 3. Letters from Wilna in Lithuania of the 24th of Auguſt tell us, that the King of Sweden had paſs'd the Boryſthenes with his whole Army, but made a ſudden Halt on Intelligence that the Muſcovite Army commanded by the Czar in Perſon was advancing to offer him Battle. Which makes us impatient for the Arrival of the next Poſt.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Sept. 15.

Hamburg, Sept. 10. Letters from the Swediſh Army dated the 20th of Auguſt, relate, that the King of Sweden having an Account of the Arrival of General Leuwenhaupt at Wilda, paſs'd the Boryſthenes the 15th, and encamp'd at Halki: The advanc'd Troops of the Muſcovites to the Number of 30 or 40000 Men, lay within 3 Miles, and their Main Body 10 Miles from the Swediſh Army, having ſuch Breſtworks and Intrenchments before them as they judg'd impregnable.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 15.

Hamburg, Sept. 11. Letters of the 20th paſt from the King of Sweden's Head-Quarters at Halki 5 Miles from Mohilo, ſay the Swediſh Army paſs'd the Boryſthenes the 15th, and the 20th came within 6 Miles of the Muſcovite Army which was very ſtrongly intrench'd: General Leuwenhaupt march'd with all poſſible Diligence, to joyn his Swediſh Majeſty. In the mean time we learn, that great Endeavours are us'd by the Court of Berlin to mediate a Peace between Sweden and Muſcovy.

Cologne, Sept. 11. The Houſehold Officers of the Cardinal of Saxe Zeyts, ſay they have Advice, that in the enſuing Month of November his Eminency will come hither, to be inſtall'd Archbiſhop of Cologne.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 13.

Oſtend, Sept. 5. Collonel Caris, our Governour, has caus'd ſome Trenches (cut to drain the Water out of the Canal) which the Enemy had fill'd up, to be open'd again; and two new Trenches or Drains to be dug: He has alſo caus'd two Barks fill'd with Stones to be ſunk in the Canal of Newport: And to ſee all this done, was out in Perſon with Part of his Garriſon.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Crystal Clearness of the Glass and Truth of the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes so much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without them it will in 4 with the use of those Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glass, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as stow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasantest and usefulest Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. These with all sorts of Microscopes of the newest and best Improvement, Prospective-Glasses and other Curiosities, are Made and Sold by G. Willdey and T.
